Dear Steven

1. The Office of Rail Regulation has today approved Proposal for Change (PfC) 62 to the Access Dispute Resolution Rules, which was submitted to it by the Class Representative Committee (CRC) on 31 May 2012.
2. This proposal, sponsored by Network Rail, implements a change to the Access Dispute Resolution Rules to establish Access Disputes Resolution (GB) Limited as a company limited by guarantee in order to address unsatisfactory business aspects of the Access Disputes Committee being an unincorporated body.

4. This approval is consistent with our statutory duty to enable persons providing railway services to plan the future of their businesses with a reasonable degree of assurance.
5. In accordance with Condition C9.1.2 of the Network Code, the amendments to the Access Disputes Resolution Rules shall have effect 14 days from the date of this notification.
6. In giving CRC notice of approval we also copy this letter and attached notice to all parties identified under Conditions A4.1 and C9.1.1 of the Network Code.
7. A copy of this letter, the approval notice and the proposals will be placed on the ORR website. A copy of the approval notice will also go on ORR's public register.
