Subject: Re: Consultation on proposals to formalise the Rail Delivery Group

Andrew:

Thanks for alerting me to this Consultation. As a lay Passenger Interest Representative (on RIAC) I have no special insight into how a beefed-up RDG ought to operate. My interest is that the outcomes are the right ones. It seems to me that the proposals ORR is making are likely to deliver a better railway, and I support that endeavour. But I have no comment to make on the detail.
